TRIO ROBBED BY SYSTEM

"Efficiency Burklars" Confess to New York Police.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Three men arrested today confessed, the police said tonight, to a systematic plan of operation by which they carried out scyen robberies in New York city during the past three months. The prisoners, Joseph Cohen, 28; Morris liernstein, 28, and Louis Henig, 29, were held under $5,000 bail cach.

Each man was messigned special dates in each robbeey, police declared they told them. Bernstein acted as advance agent, selecting suitable places to rob, and assisting Cohen in gathering the loot. Cohen lased the revolver with which victims were intimidated and Henig acted as watchman.

The three men were arrested after officers had trailed to the control of the control of the property of the prop
